PART A: OUR STRATEGY'S 4 PILLARS

Pillar 1: Raise awareness of the issue

Tell us how well our Anti-Human Trafficking Strategy raises awareness of human trafficking among frontline workers, children, youth and the general public.

1. What do you think are the most important things people should know about human trafficking?
2. What kinds of human trafficking awareness materials have you seen and where did you see them? If yes, did you find them helpful and why? What was missing?
3. How can we do a better job of raising awareness of human trafficking, especially among children and youth?
4. How can we improve targeted anti-human trafficking outreach to children and youth online and on social media?

Pillar 2: Protect victims and intervene early

Tell us how well our strategy protects victims, and how well it uses initiatives/resources targeted towards children and youth to intervene earlier.

5. What has been your experience with human trafficking prevention and early intervention services or resources? What worked well? What would you change?
6. How can we use early intervention measures to better protect children and youth?

Pillar 3: Support survivors

Tell us how well our strategy helps support survivors to heal and rebuild their lives.

7. What has been your experience in providing or receiving specialized anti-human trafficking services?
8. In your experience, were these services effective? Why or why not?
9. What actions should be prioritized to support survivors of human trafficking?

Pillar 4: Hold offenders accountable

Tell us how well our strategy holds offenders accountable through law enforcement and the justice system.

10. Specific to human trafficking, what has been your experience interacting with, or working with law enforcement and the justice system to hold offenders accountable?
11. Based on your experience, what worked and what did you find to be a challenge?
12. What actions should be prioritized to better hold offenders accountable?

PART B: TRENDS, GAPS AND CHALLENGES

Since the launch of the strategy in 2020, the landscape of human trafficking in Ontario has changed and continues to evolve.

Share your thoughts about:

- Current and evolving challenges
- additional areas of focus in combating trafficking
- The Strategy's responsiveness to the changing nature of human trafficking
- any other issues that you believe Ontario should consider as part of the review
